Dear Sailors & Friends,

Please accept our heartfelt condolences for the people who lost their lives in devastating fires in Attica and across Greece.

We know that words cannot express the sadness you are feeling right now, we are praying for you to get through this.

We are following with honour the efforts of the rescue workers in saving lives and curbing the spread of the fires.

We want to stand united with yourselves during this tragic time.

Please be sure that we are always here for any contribution we can make rather than feeling your sorrow as ours.
